* * *

We wish to thank Mrs. Morrison for her generous contributions of turkeys for our holiday dinners, garden seed, and money that we may use to benefit the hospital, and many acts of kindness shown to us during the year.

We received gifts from the following which were greatly appreciated: a slate sink for the laboratory by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Astle, a commode chair by Mrs. Frank Simmons, equipment for the hospital and laboratory given by Mrs. Ethel Lay, three foot stools for the maternity department by the Alumnae, jelly by Mrs. Everett Courcy, and apple sauce by Mrs. Everett Raether, as well as many books and magazines by interested persons. Gifts of money were given by Mrs. Etta Thompson and others.

With the yearly donation by Mrs. Charles, a new bed, mattress, and crib sides were purchased for the Children's Ward.

Mrs. Edward Breed, of the Mountain View Colony, established a Special Nursing Fund for needy people.

The room, so beautifully furnished by the American Legion, adds one more room and is very popular with the patients.

The Hospital Auxiliary generously gave of their time and efforts for mending once a month, also bought linen and other supplies. The tile floors which are such an improvement, are greatly appreciated by the staff.

When the Mount Washington Hotel closed, we received a large amount of fresh and frozen fruit and vegetables. With the aid of the deep freeze, we were able to make use of all of this donation.

The Trustees have asked me to express their sincere appreciation of the strong and very successful appeal made to their guests at the Mountain View House by the Dodge family.

Though our financial position appears to be in good shape at present, we are now faced with the heavy expense of installing sprinklers, strongly recommended by the State Department of Hospital Services, and we cannot expect any substantial donation before next summer.

Our greatest trouble is in collections of money due from patients. We hope that all will cooperate to improve this condition as much as possible in the coming year.

The public is cordially invited to visit their hospital.

Respectfully submitted,

MARION W. LaDUKE, R.N.
Superintendent
